

Kick-start your career in the disability and aged care sectors with a

Supported Scholarship Program

Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing & Disability) CHC33015

LINK Community Transport are excited to announce a partnership with FSSI (Future Social Services Institute) and RMIT University.

RMIT University will deliver a tailored FSSI scholarship program in Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing & Disability). FSSI is a collaboration between the Victorian Council of Social Service (VCOSS) and RMIT University, supported by the Victorian Government.

The Scholarship provides an opportunity for participants to get a step ahead and become 'job ready', as you will not only receive a qualification from industry leader RMIT, supported by the Future Social Service Institute, but you will gain invaluable experience at LINK Community Transport (a not-for-profit organisation) that has provided services to the aged and disability sector for 40 years.

Scholarship Assistance

- Waived university student fees Student Services & Amenities Fee (SSAF)
- On Enrolment - $25 Officeworks voucher to assist with stationary needs
- Mid Study - $100 voucher
- On Course Completion - $200 voucher to assist with clothing necessities you may need for your new career
- Paid police check (a work requirement)
- Loaned iPad for use while enrolled
- Resume and Job Readiness assistance
- Free polo shirt for placements
- Peer support from social work students
- Support to prepare and secure work
- Paid provided first aid (a work requirement)

Plus much more!

Career Opportunities

- Disability support officer
- Aged care worker
- Personal care assistant
- Home care worker
- Support officer (disability)
- Family support worker
- Accommodation support worker
- Community house worker

Or a pathway into further studies!

Visit www.linkcommunitytransport.org.au for information and to apply!

